Provence White Sparkling Brut

Winemaker

Laurent Breban

Wine Region

Provence

Story

The Breban company is one of the last family owned company producing artisanal sparkling wines in the South of France. The grand-father, Raymond, started elaborating sparkling wine in his garage in 1942. He has then decided to add a full range of wines from Provence. Since that time, two generations have been managing the company with the same passion and philosophy for quality. Today, they are famous in France and all over the world for the quality of their Provence wines and their premium hand crafted sparkling wines.

Vineyard

Made in Provence, this wine comes from vineyards located in both the South West and South East of France.

Vinification

This wine combines Ugni Blanc, a traditional Provence grape, with Colombard, a grape known for its aromatic richness. It offers subtle flavors, balanced acidity, and just the right alcohol content. Created through a second fermentation called «head taking,» these wines are filtered, bottled, and made available for sale. Everything happens at cool temperatures in stainless steel tanks.

Tasting Notes

Pale yellow color with green glints in the glass. The nose is complex with delicious bouquets of citrus fruits (lemon and grapefruits), of peaches and small white flowers. On the palate, straight attack and a lot of freshness.

Food Pairing

This wine is ideal as an aperitif or with appetizers like croquetas or nachos or with a cheese board.
